global scale.

Globalization

generates an increasing demand

for effective communication in

diverse cultural contexts and

challenges the relevance of

culture in operating businesses in the

Access Free Business

global village.
Communication differences are apparent in many scenarios.

Expatriates of international organizations operating abroad adopt their native cultural values to motivate employees of foreign cultures

with an entirely different perspective. They use one culture's motives to move people from other cultures. In global marketing communication, the communicators use values systems of their native culture to develop advertising for one culture to describe others.

Such divergence in
attitudes,
perspectives and
priorities of suppliers, and customers with different cultural backgrounds have led to many project

However, effective
cross cultural
business
communication
needs to recognize and adopt an interdisciplinary

perspective in understanding the cultural forces (Leung, K. et al.,

we need a
multidisciplinary
paradigm to carry on effective and
