He restores my soul (Psalm 23:3) means my God cares about my soul. He pays attention to it. He notices when it becomes damaged, and He loves me enough to apply His tender mercy and His gentle touch. He restores my soul means He's strong enough to be able to restore it and kind enough to want to.

He Restores My Soul - A Divine Encounter

Psalm 23:3 says, "He restores my soul." How can our souls be restored? The focus is on God's work in our lives. We cannot restore ourselves, but must be restored by God. The context of Psalm 23 is one in which David recognizes God as his shepherd or caretaker. Because God watches over him, he does not find himself in need of anything. All of his needs are met. He can rest in green pastures, beside still waters (v. 2).
