Theseus comes to Eleusis on the day when the king must die, and the queen tells Theseus that he must wrestle with the current king. In Eleusis, as in some other kingdoms of the Minyans, Mother Dia is the supreme deity, and the queen reigns supreme. The king, named Kerkyon in Eleusis, is killed each year.

The King Must Die: Summary | SparkNotes
Published in 1985, The Queen Must Die: and Other Affairs of Bees and Men is not a beekeeping book, nor is it a biology book. Rather it a philosophical text on the life of bees and humans. The author, William Longgood, obviously loves bees their keeping.
