Is Yoga a Spiritual Practice? | Is Yoga a Religious ...

The word yoga translates to union and when practiced correctly, the mind, body, and spirit of a person can become aligned and well. In addition to the asanas, aka poses, meditation, and pranayama (breathing exercises) are particularly helpful in creating more wellness in the mind and body and a deeper connection to your authentic self and/or a higher power (God, The Universe, Allah, whatever you call it).

The Spiritual Benefits of Yoga & Why Yoga Is Not A Religion

When committing to yoga practice on a regular basis, yogis seek to experience and become aware of the spirit, or the energy, within and without. We're not talking about ghostly spirits here, or some supernatural being - spirit is higher consciousness; a driving force, a motivation, a reason behind everything we think and everything we do.
